FLOOR SITUATION

H.Res. 493 is being considered on the House floor under suspension of the rules and will require a two-thirds majority vote for passage. This legislation was introduced by Representative Jerry Lewis (R-CA) on June 18, 2007. The resolution was referred to the House Committee on Education and Labor, but was never considered.

H.Res. 493 is expected to be considered on the House floor on March 10, 2008.

SUMMARY

H.Res. 493 resolves that the House of Representatives:

- Congratulates the women's water polo team of the University of California, Los Angeles, and Head Coach Adam Krikorian for winning the 2007 NCAA Division I Women's Water Polo National Championship;
- Congratulates UCLA on becoming the first school to win 100 NCAA sports national championship titles, making it the most accomplished athletic program in NCAA history; and
- Recognizes the achievements of all the players, coaches, students, alumni, and staff of UCLA who were instrumental over the years in this prestigious achievement.

BACKGROUND

On May 13, 2007, the UCLA Women's water polo team defeated Stanford University 5-4, winning the NCAA National Title for the third consecutive year.

This victory marks UCLA's 100th NCAA national championship title, the most in NCAA titles held by a single collegiate program in the nation.

UCLA was founded in 1919, and is located in Westwood Village, in Los Angeles, California.
